REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES AND LIBRARIAN OF THE GRIFFIN PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Everything has been realized that was anticipated at the March meeting of 1892, when the town voted to accept the provisions of the library law and Sebastian S. Griffin made the offer to present his very valuable personal library to the town on July 4th of the same year.

The library was formally turned over to the trustees on the date mentioned. Mr. Griffin has performed the duties of librarian, without pay, and aided the trustees in many other ways, thereby devoting much time for the public good.

The books promised by the state, on the adoption of the law by the town, have been received, 105 in number as you will see by the report of the librarian. You will only need consult his report to learn how well the books have been appreciated, if we can judge by the number taken from the library the last two months.

The trustees hope the interest in the library will increase, and all the citizens will avail themselves of its privileges.

We are pleased to learn that there is a desire among those quite young to obtain books from the library. If the demand increases, an addition of books suitable for them, will probably be made out of the funds now in the treasurer's hands, an account of which will be annexed to this report.

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT.

The whole number of bound books in the Griffin Public Library at the present time is some over 1100 volumes. Since the library came into the possession of the town there has been received by donation from Mr. James Savage of Lowell, Mass., 35 volumes of bound books in good condition. Also from the state 105 volumes of choice books.

As librarian, we would suggest that the best care should be taken of the books, by those who receive them from the library, that they are not soiled, or the leaves turned down, or started from the binding.

I will here state that since the first of January there have been taken from the library some over 300 books. This proves that reading was appreciated by our citizens during the last two months.

SEBASTIAN S. GRIFFIN,

Auburn, N. H., Feb 29, 1893

Librarian,

SCHOOL REPORT.

TO THE CITIZENS OF AUBURN :

In submitting this, the seventh annual report of our schools under the town system, it has seemed to us that an idea of their general standing could best be given by comparing the work of the year with that of the past six with which we are familiar. We have watched with interest the pupils who have entered the different schools each year, and have carefully compared their progress. With the exception of some superior scholars, who easily outstripped the classes which they were in, the progress of the pupils has been very uniform. The older ones have gradually dropped out, as a matter of course, but the tendency to leave school at an earlier age than formerly calls for the establishment of a partially graded school for the more advanced pupils.

It is with pleasure that we announce that the general standard of our schools is rising. Parrot recitations and the premature advancement in some studies to the detriment of others have given place to thoroughness and a practical understanding of each study. That the interest is increasing for a better education is shown by the fact that pupils from five of our schools are attending Pinkerton and Coe's academies and the Manchester schools the present winter. We can only regret that the parents have not visited their schools oftener, and known more of the good work that their children have been doing in the limited time they have been in school.

ATTENDANCE.

About one-half of the average number of pupils have been nearly perfect in attendance during the year, while the other half are found to have an unusually large number of absences and tardy marks. It is worthy of note that it is the same set of pupils from term to term and year to year that are regular in attendance. Many of the names on the roll of honor are very familiar, as they have appeared on each year's list since they entered school.

We have had taught an aggregate of 167 weeks, or an average of 23 6-7 weeks in each of the seven schools.

Whooping cough reduced the attendance of No. 6 school to such a degree that it was not deemed practicable to continue the fall term longer than twelve weeks. Owing to the sickness of the teacher, No. 2 school closed one week earlier than it otherwise would have done.

One hundred and eighteen different pupils have been enrolled during the year, 37 being residents of the village, and 24 of the Banker Hill section. During the second week of the fall term six of the pupils of the village school kindly changed to No. 7, where there were only eight scholars. The average number of pupils belonging to the village and the Bunker Hill schools for the fall term was 52, at an average cost of 25 cents per day. The average number belonging to the other five schools was 48, at an average cost of 58 cents per week. The law requires an equalizing, as far as possible, of the public educational opportunities to all school children. Only a thorough acquaintance with school population and circumstances will convince those interested of the difficulties arising in a fair adjustment of the same; yet the maintenance of an unnecessary number of small schools is not in our opinion profitable.

The State Superintendent's report for 1892 gives the decrease in the number of schools since 1885 as 458.

TEACHERS.

Most of our teachers have been well adapted to their schools and have accomplished all that could reasonably be expected. That the entire number did not succeed as well as we had hoped was from no lack of character or education, and we wish to commend all for their endeavor to do effective work. The schools in Nos. 2, 4 and 7 were classed the same for the summer term, but more wages were paid in No. 7 owing to the difficulty of obtaining board.

LIBRARY.

We have made an earnest effort to have our pupils avail themselves of the privileges of our free library, which contains many useful and instructive books. As a result many are taking books regularly and are reading them intelligently.

REPAIRS.

No general repairs have been made on the school buildings, but the No. 2 school room has been much improved in looks by the expenditure of a few dollars for paint and paper.

CONCLUSION.

We have a bright, intelligent class of school children at the present time, whose scholarship we are willing to compare with that of any other collection of pupils of like age and opportunities. Let us give them the best possible intellectual and moral training and the result cannot fail to be Auburn's proportion of New Hampshire's worthy sons and daughters.

We thank all pupils and teachers with whom we have been connected for their courtesy and co-operation in all school work.

Respectfully,

FRANCES A. GRIFFIN,
GILMAN H. CLARK,

School Board.

Home, Sweet Home.

We are now located in our New Building, on the same site where we have carried on a successful Hardware business for nearly fifty years.

The new Varick Building is substantial and modern in every respect, and is pronounced by the trade to be one of the best adapted buildings for the Hardware business to be found in the United States.

We shall continue to occupy the Storehouse adjoining, and the combined buildings will give us a floor surface of over 60,000 square feet.

As we have room enough for storage purposes we are enabled to purchase our goods in immense quantities and thus obtain the very lowest market prices.

We extend to all our friends a cordial invitation to look us over.
